About J.N.N Arts & Science Women's College

Founded in 2005 in the fond memory of his beloved mother, Smt. Alamelu Ammaal, by the visionary and multifaceted Shri. S. Jayachandran, Alamelu Ammaal Educational Trust is a well-known name in the educational arena of Tamil Nadu. The Trust, which runs a number of educational institutions under the name 'J.N.N Institutions,' which has remained strongly dedicated to delivering quality education to the future of the nation, since the very beginning of its establishment.

In 2017, aiming to inspire the students to grow into dynamic leaders and sensitive human beings, the trust opened the doors of J.N.N Arts & Science Women's College to the first batch of students. The college is Approved by the Government of Tamil Nadu and is affiliated to the University of Madras.

Vision

J.N.N.A.S.W.C, creating a diverse interconnected learning ecosystem like a forest, preserving, reflecting, nurturing and discovering thoughts, knowledge, wisdom and experiences of humanity as it enters the new age.

In the universe of J.N.N, where the past, present and future converge, learners create their new saga of discoveries and applications, respond to the legacy of human experience, co-exist with multiple perspectives and experience an integrated global learning landscape.

J.N.N envisions to transform the what and how of education by embedding timeless values and beliefs of cultures and our connections to nature with knowledge and technology to define how we lead humanity.

Mission

The mission of J.N.N.A.S.W.C is to create a learning universe for the future while nurturing the elements, values, beliefs and insights that make us human.

The purpose of J.N.N Arts & Science Women's College is to create an environment designed to infuse human connection with nature, harmony and servitude while immersing, experiencing, exploring, experimenting and expanding with the universes of human knowledge.

At J.N.N, knowledge and technology represents the "What" while human insights represent the "Why". As the barriers between man, machine, nature and technology dissolve in this fourth industrial revolution, J.N.N aims to inspire students to grow into dynamic leaders and become responsible, proud and sensitive human beings to lead humanity in an interconnected world.

Our Love for Wisdom

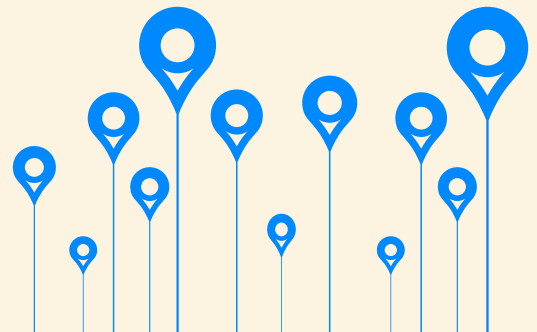

J.N.N Arts & Science Women's College reflects the creation of a Learning environment anchored in the continuity of the heritage and wisdom of human experience. An ecosystem of lifelong relationships, a congregation of minds delving into the learning processes of life, society and nature to discover new directions and choices of tomorrow. Our future is just a part of a journey that started long ago, a journey of sharing human experiences.

J.N.N embarks on a lifelong journey of learning and self-discovery to explore the knowledge, create new skills and enhance abilities that will define the evolution of humanity in the future. We are inventors, creators, problem solvers always reaching out to discover better ways for this human experience.

J.N.N believes in those ways that will change for the betterment of humanity, a future where good things will become better, a future where we will search for the truth, dialogue with respect and humility, discover the right path, make choices and accept consequences, differentiate right from wrong and discover our purpose in this universe.

Our Identity

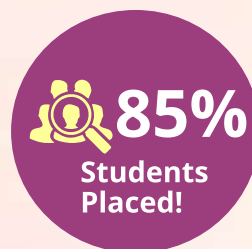

J.N.N's identity reflects an institution of learning anchored in the values of Truth, Purity, Compassion, Peace, Diligence and Harmony which define its direction. J.N.N accepts its duty towards learners, society and nature.

The Management of J.N.N Arts & Science Women's College believes that participation of Women in the work force is important to Empower Women in our country.

J.N.N Arts & Science Women's College is the only institution in Tiruvallur District to provide quality placement opportunities to its students.

We have delivered on our Promise!
